

Prof. Rashmi Kala Agrawal

Dr. Rashmi Kala Agrawal is Professor and ex-Head of the Department. Her field of specialization is Indian Painting and Folk Art. She is member of several administrative and academic bodies. She has done her post-doctoral research from the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London. She has been awarded several awards/fellowships – Common Wealth Fellowship, Indo British Cultural Exchange Fellowship, UGC Career Award and University Gold Medal etc. She had widely travelled to Europe, USA and Japan in connection with her research work. She has published several papers on Indian Painting. Prof. Agrawal has two books to her credit namely Early Indian Miniature Paintings and Bharatiya Chitrakala. She has delivered lectures in India and abroad mainly on Indian Painting. Nine Ph.D. theses on diverse field of Indian art have been awarded under her supervision.